

FRISK TRAINING

Presented by Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Rudd & Romo hosted by the Fresno County Superintendent of Schools

October 18, 2024

Deadline to Register: October 9, 2024

The FRISK® Leadership Program is a proven communication framework for successfully remediating performance problems and developing legally defensible documentation when discipline is necessary. It is based on the highly successful FRISK® handbook written by AALRR Senior Partner, Steve Andelson. This program has been used for the past 35 years by school districts, county offices of education, professional education associations, universities, and community and state colleges for training and required coursework.

Basic Session Only - $125/person

(price includes cost of book & continental breakfast)

Basic Program The FRISK® methodology is designed to help supervisors effectively create legally sufficient documents for the purpose of addressing employee substandard performance issues and misconduct. Developed by AALRR partner, Steven J. Andelson, the training program and accompanying manual provide supervisors with critical feedback components and concrete steps for handling employee deficiencies.
