

Certificates, Credentials, and Career-Focused Training – On Your Schedule

Professional and Continuing Education Overview (PACE)

National University's PACE programs support lifelong learning and professional growth through high-quality certificates and continuing education opportunities. PACE offerings are designed to help professionals deepen expertise, explore new areas of interest, and stay aligned with evolving industry needs while maintaining flexibility alongside work and personal commitments.

100% Online

Accessible learning designed to fit into your schedule

Self-Paced

Learn at your own pace with interactive, on-demand content

Stackable for Degree Credit

Select certificates may apply toward National University degree programs

Industry-Aligned

Programs developed with practical, career-relevant outcomes in mind

CEU-Eligible

Continuing education units available

PACE certificates can be pursued as standalone professional credentials or as part of a broader educational journey at National University.

Top PACE Programs for Fresno County Superintendent of Schools:

- Curriculum, Subject-Area Teaching & Assessment
- Online Learning, Instructional Design & Educational Technology
- Student Wellbeing, Behavior Support & Special Education

Explore Professional and Continuing Education Offerings
NU.edu/PACE
pace@nu.edu | 805-200-2332